He Never Failed Me Yet!

Wow! What a Fall Fest!! This year I was especially excited because I got to choose and hire the band. As the details came together that we could have the Del Ray's at our Fall Fest, everyone's interest in this project seemed to explode. Then I thought . . . what should we have "our" choir sing at the 11:00 Mass to get everyone in the proper spirit for the Fall Fest. So, my next question was what song would not only get the choir excited, but would send a very important message to the congregation. All of a sudden it came to me . . . "He Never Failed Me Yet" by Robert Ray. I chose this song, first because of the "gospel" feeling of the music that would allow the choir to express this important message and enjoy the way they would present this song. Second, was the meaning of the words. Consider these questions - Who can you turn to in difficult times? Who can you trust? Can you lean on the saving grace of God?

Music speaks to my soul and often it's how I experience God's grace. Go to Google and type "he never failed me yet Robert Ray" and take time to listen to this song today. May the lyrics speak directly to you during any time. Along with this music being stuck in my head, on a nearly, constant loop, "He Never Failed Me Yet" has become an anthem of praise, hope and promise in such a challenging and uncertain season. Read and Listen!

I will sing of God's mercy
Every day, every hour
He gives me power.

I will sing and give thanks to Thee
For all the dangers, toils and snares
That He has brought me out.
He is my God and I'll serve Him
No matter what the test
Trust and never doubt
Jesus will surely bring you out
He never failed me yet.

I know God is able to deliver
In times of storm
And I know that He'll keep you safe
From all earthly harm.
One day when my weary soul is at rest
I'm going home to be forever blessed

Trust and never doubt
Jesus will surely bring you out
He never failed me yet.

Didn't my God deliver
Moses from King Pharaoh?
And didn't He cool the fiery furnace
For Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego?
When I think of what my God can do
He delivered Daniel
I know He will deliver you.

Trust and never doubt
Jesus will surely bring you out
He never failed me yet.

Well, what did you think? The verses recall the promises and stories of God's provision in scripture as a testament to His unfailing care and love for us. And what about that refrain? Each time we sing those words "He Never Failed Me Yet" doesn't the hair on your arms begin to stand? As the uncertainty of these times continues, I pray that each of us find comfort in remembering God's taking care of us in the past and clinging to His promises for the future. Many things in life may have changed or are even changing right now, but Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. So whenever you think that you need reminding, listen to this song (google he never failed me yet Robert Ray) and sing those words with us . . . He Never Failed Me Yet!!!

Musically yours,

OUR PARISHIONERS

Rest in Peace

Together we join in prayer for

Eunice Verstagen

who recently passed away and for her family. May family and friends find peace knowing that their loved one now rests with God.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY—OCTOBER 22

World Mission Sunday is a special moment of encounter with the Pope's missions throughout the world. It is a day for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves through prayer and sacrifice to the Church mission. It is held the second to last Sunday every October.

On World Mission Sunday we are provided an opportunity to nurture and enrich over 1,000 local churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Island, and parts of Latin America and Eastern Europe, an area that covers more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy.

Please support the work of the mission Church and make a generous gift on World Mission Sunday. Envelopes are at the entrances this weekend and for the following couple weekends.

A Tribute to Becoming Our Best Selves One Step at a Time

(Inspired by Matthew Kelly, an internationally known Catholic author and speaker. He is the author of Rediscover Catholicism and at least ten other books.)

Ego: Believing that either we have or we can get the knowledge and skills to accomplish something. Sometimes our ego misleads us. Young people run into this all the time when the dreams of childhood meet the realities of our abilities. In my late teens, two of my best friends were old guys - they were pushing 30 - and both were professional church musicians, like Randy. Though I had never had even one piano lesson, I decided that was the life for me. Accordingly, I began months of nightly trips to my parish church to practice on the organ. My brain learned how to decipher sheet music, but the sound of even my best efforts to turn this knowledge into skilled performance was pretty awful. I finally realized that my stubby fingers and very average fine motor skills wouldn't cut it. My dream crashed - I had failed. But I never regretted the effort. How else would I have learned? For young people - or old people, for that matter - failure is just as important to eventually becoming our best selves as success.

We are looking for your assistance!

St. Jude is blessed to have so many people attending Mass each weekend. With this comes the responsibility of ensuring that we have Ushers to assist them, and Father, with the Mass. The most current need is the 9:30 am Mass at St. Vincent.

If you are interested in volunteering please contact Deacon Brad at (920) 235-7412.

will be on a Sunday this year.

Prayer for a loved one is, for the believer, a way of erasing any distance, even death. In prayer we stand in God's presence in the company of someone we love, even if that person has gone before us in death.

Holy Hour for Peace

With Rosary
and Divine Mercy Chaplet

Friday, October 27, 2023

1:30 pm • Sacred Heart Church

Pope Francis has called for a day of fasting and prayer on Friday, October 27, "in a spirit of penance to implore peace in our time, peace in this world." As we did this past week, our parish will again offer a Holy Hour for Peace. All are encouraged to mark this day with fasting and abstinence, and to join us in prayer or offer prayers privately for peace in the Holy Land. (Fasting is defined as one full meal, plus up to two "snacks" that do not add up to a full meal. Drinking water and taking medicine do not break the fast.)

COUNCIL 614— OUR LADY OF LOURDES The Power of Prayer and the Rosary!

Military victories through the Rosary inspire great confidence in the awesome power of the Rosary. The history of the Rosary is filled with amazing military triumphs where those devoted to reciting the Rosary prayer were victorious despite great and often times insurmountable odds. Below is a timeline of many of these military victories through the Rosary beginning in St. Dominic's time up through modern times. You will quickly discover why the Rosary is beloved and depended upon by those serving in the armed forces. The power of the Rosary should not be underestimated, especially now while parts of the world are at war. <http://www.how-to-pray-the-rosary-everyday.com/>

The Collective Masses are offered at different times but they are preset and cannot be moved.

THIS WILL BE DONE THE SAME AS LAST YEAR**
