From pastor's heart... Happy Thanksgiving!

As we celebrate Thanksgiving Day, I am reminded of the many blessings received throughout the year. Despite the challenges and hardships, we still have a lot to be thankful for. "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever." - Psalm 136:1

This Thanksgiving, I encourage you to take a moment to reflect on the goodness of God and the many ways in which he has blessed us. Let us give thanks for our families, our friends and our parish community. Let us be mindful of those who are struggling and in need and offer our help and support.

As we gather around the table to share a meal with our loved ones, let us remember that we are all part of one family in Christ. Let us be grateful for the love and fellowship that we share, and for the ways in which we support and care for one another.

The world may be scary at times, but God has promised to never leave us nor forsake us. He said, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9).

This Thanksgiving, I am thankful for each and every one of you, and for the many ways in which you have contributed to the life and ministry of our parish. It is a joy and a privilege to be your brother in Christ and serve alongside of you in the cause of Christ. Your prayers, your generosity and your commitment to Christ are an inspiration and encouragement to me. Together, may our service to the Lord "overflow in many thanksgivings to God" (2 Corinthians 9:12)!

Wish You Happy Thanksgiving and God's Abundant Blessings,
Fr. Louis

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY

The "O" Antiphons

Mondays, 8:30-10:00 am • Leannah Hall
Starts November 27 • Ends December 18
No cost ... Just bring your Bible!

The season of Advent has long been associated with the "O" Antiphons, ancient prayers that are said or sung the final week of Advent. Each of these prayers addresses Jesus by one of seven Old Testament titles:

- Wisdom
- Adonai
- Root of Jesse
- Key of David
- Dawn of the East
- King of the Nations
- Emmanuel

Join us this Advent as we read and reflect on the Bible passages that these titles come from, and explore how they give us deeper insight into Jesus' person and his mission!

To register or for more info, contact Rob Saley at the Parish Office: (920) 235-7412, rsaley@stjudeoshkosh.org

Care for Creation!

COOKING MATTERS

Eating is an agricultural act ending the food circle that begins with sowing and reaping. City people can participate in this act as more than just consumers. We can eat responsibly. We can participate in food production by growing something to eat, be it a vegetable garden or just a pot in a sunny window. If possible, we can deal directly with local farmers by purchasing their produce at our downtown markets, and we can prepare our own food.

Home cooking not only gives us a meal but also the occasion; the habit of eating together at a certain time and place. Meals together bring back nostalgic memories of Sunday dinners at Grama and Grampa's house, the smells, the conversations, and the sociality among families. Over time that has evolved into more outdoor cooking on a grill and almost becoming a form of weekend recreation. Cooking skills have gradually been lost.

Mass food preparation has cut down on the time it takes to make a meal, and it was found that when we don't have to cook meals, we eat more of them! One interesting study found that poor women who routinely cooked were more likely to eat a more healthy diet than well-to-do women who didn't. Can a culture of everyday cooking be rebuilt? We already have takeout meals from the supermarket; is a drive-through supermarket next? Cooking matters a lot.
