Jesus is Coming - Prepare your Hearts

At this time of year, we certainly do a lot to prepare our homes and families for Christmas. The question we need to ask ourselves is: what are we doing to prepare our hearts? After all, that is why we celebrate Christmas - energy going to parties, shopping for gifts and traveling, that we are too worn out to focus our hearts on the true meaning of Christmas. By the time Christmas rolls around, we have become mentally and physically exhausted, to the point that we lose sight of the real meaning of the season.

However, if you pay close attention to the readings of Advent, you will be reminded to prepare your hearts for the coming of Jesus. Mark, wastes no time in his Gospel telling us for whom we are to prepare our hearts. The beginning of Mark's Gospel says, Jesus, God's Son, is coming. What a confession of faith! This is not a mere celebrity or royal dignitary. This is not even a dearly loved family member or a lost friend. This is God himself, The Father's Son, coming to dwell among his people, to save his people and eventually take his people home to eternal life.

God had promised, through the prophet Isiah, that a messenger would come to prepare the way for the Messiah. This was John the Baptist. He came to make roads ready and paths straight. But, it wasn't John's clothing or what he ate that was to get people ready for Jesus. John was there preparing hearts for the coming Savior. John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

John did baptize with water, but Jesus will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

Christmas is coming, let the church bells ring!
People celebratin' the birth of a king.
Shoutin' hosanna till the heavens ring.
Christmas is comin', let the church bells ring!

Christmas is comin', Mary's baby boy bringin' us a message of comfort and joy. Glory hallelujah, what a wonderful thing. Christmas is comin', let the church bells ring! Glory filled the heavens.

Music filled the night.

Shepherds heard the angels sing.

Wise men saw the light.

Christmas is coming let the church bells ring!
People celebratin' the birth of a king.
Shoutin' hosanna till the heavens ring.
Christmas is comin', let the church bells ring!

As you continue to prepare your hearts during the Advent season, stay focused on your Savior and the blessings he provides. Your sins are forgiven by the one who was promised and has come. Keep your focus on him and then alone is your heart truly prepared. Jesus is coming, let the church bells RING!

Musically Yours,

Why Do We Do That?

Ever wonder what the words, gestures, and rituals of Mass are all about? Keep an eye on this space each week! This week's question:

Q. Why do we have to go to Mass twice on December 23-25?

A. This year, December 24 is a Sunday, meaning that we will celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent and the Christmas Eve vigil Masses on the same day. As Catholics, we are obliged to attend Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation, unless there is some grave reason preventing us (such as illness). (If you've missed Mass any Sunday or holy day, be sure to mention it the next time you go to confession!) When a holy day of obligation—such as All Saints' Day or the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception—falls on a Saturday or Monday, the bishops of the United States generally lift the obligation. The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday, however, is never lifted. The same goes for the obligation to attend Mass on Christmas. That means that, whether you attend the Saturday vigil Mass and a Monday Christmas Mass, or attend Mass twice on Sunday, or go to Mass on Sunday and Monday mornings, this Christmas we will all be going to church a little more frequently than we're used to.

The Church urges us to consider this obligation not as a nuisance but as an invitation: In his letter on the Sunday obligation, Dies Domini, Pope St. John Paul II beautifully wrote, "Do not be afraid to give your time to Christ! ... Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human."

Got a question about the Mass or liturgical year? Send it to the parish office, drop it in the collection basket, or email it to rsaley@stjudeoshkosh.org.

Grief Support Group

Grief is something we all face at some point in our life. No one grieves exactly like the next person, or for a set amount of time. We will be offering two different times and locations to assist as many people as possible that wish to attend.

COUNCIL 614— OUR LADY OF LOURDES

What Does the Second Week of Advent Candle stand for?

Second Week of Advent

The second advent candle ("The Bethlehem Candle") is purple and represents peace. In some traditions, the second candle and the fourth one ("The Angel's Candle," representing love) may be interchanged. Peace is a central theme of the Advent season but the main focus of the second week of Advent.

One of the prophecies about Jesus calls him "the Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6-7). When the angels appeared to the shepherds, they ended their message by saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests" (Luke 2:14). When Simeon saw baby Jesus in the temple, he thanked God that he could now die in peace for he had seen the Messiah (Luke 2:29-33). On a broader level, the Bible talks in various places about a spiritual war going on between goodness and evil (or "powers and principalities" [Ephesians 6:12]). The combination of Satan fighting against goodness and humans fighting against God has made the earth a battleground in an ongoing fight.
