519 KNAPP STREET & 1225 OREGON STREET
OSHKOSH, WISCONSIN

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

The Safety of Darkness

Reflection by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Leprosy and blindness and deafness — oh, my. The disabilities cured by Jesus in his public ministry really are quite something, aren't they? Vividly symbolic and rich food for reflection. It just wouldn't be the same if Jesus had cured eczema or athlete's foot or compulsive nail-biting.

Blind Bartimaeus, sitting by the side of the road, in particular captures my imagination. Because I have a confession to make, sometimes, I like to sit in the darkness, even though I know it isn't very good for me.

Well, listen: it's just easier, isn't it? You don't have to care about or fix the problems you can't see. No one expects you to rush to someone's aid if you don't see their injuries. The darkness is a good place to be, if you don't feel very brave or very smart or very able.

And when Jesus passes you by, if your whole world is darkness, it's easy enough to pretend you just didn't notice him at all.

But Bartimaeus chose not to stay in his darkness. More than that, he cried out to be released from it, even when everyone around him told him to shut up. He was so persistent that he caught the notice of Jesus, and when he heard those words — “Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you!” — what did he do? He didn't stammer and run away. He had courage. He got up.

It takes courage to ask for what you need to follow Christ. Because if you ask for it, you'll get it. And then begins the terrifying, wonderful journey of discipleship — testifying to what you have seen. Life in the light, no longer sitting by the side of the road but on the road, journeying toward the greatest destination of all.

“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asks us.

Do we have the courage to answer him?

Prayer to St. Jude the Apostle

Most holy Apostle, Saint Jude Thaddeus, friend of Jesus,

I place myself in your care at this difficult time.

Help me know that I need not face my troubles alone.

Please join me in my need, asking God to send me

consolation in my sorrow,

courage in my fear,

and healing in the midst of my suffering.

Ask our loving Lord to fill me with the grace to accept whatever may lie ahead for me and my loved ones, and to strengthen my faith in God's healing powers.

Thank you, Saint Jude Thaddeus, for the promise of hope you hold out to all who believe,

and inspire me to give this gift of hope to others

as it has been given to me.

Amen.

Radiating Joy is a story about Michelle Duppong, a Servant of God, who bore witness to Christ through heroic suffering and a passion for inviting others to be transformed by His love. The film tells the story of Michelle's beautiful and faith-filled life, especially during her diagnosis, treatment, and death.

In June 2022, Bishop David Kagan of Bismarck, North Dakota, announced the opening of the investigation into Michelle's life which could lead to her beatification and canonization. She died on December 25, 2015.
