The Presentation

Who doesn't like a good surprise every now and then? Just this morning, as I was doing the "time to get up for school" routine with the girls I looked into one of the girl's beds and didn't see her. Now, I'll be honest, out of the corner of my eye I saw the closet light was on but you know, sometimes it's just plain ole fun to start yelling a name and saying "I can't find her! Has anyone seen her? Where could she be?"

After some time of running around the house frantically looking for my daughter I went back into the room, checked both beds again, and then did the slow turn around and JUMP when I saw her standing with a smile. She LOVED it! It's fun to be kid... even when we are a bit older!

This weekend we hear that the two Testaments of the Bible converge for us Catholic-Christians. Jesus, the new Temple of God, enters into the ancient Temple of God. In this moment Jesus brings the law of love into a place in which the law of sacrifice is fulfilled. The stone tablets will begin to be transformed into compassionate hearts. No longer just Divine, but God has now come down into our human flesh.

Much like the game of hide-and-seek, there was a little surprise for Mary and Joseph upon entering this ancient temple of sacrifice. You see, these earthly parents of Jesus know who he really is... lest we not forget the angel Gabriel appearing to Mary... and also coming to Joseph in a dream... but they do not necessarily expect any others to know. They came to the temple so that Mary could be purified through sacrifice. Due to Mosaic Law, any woman who had a male child must not approach the Temple, or touch any holy object, for 40 days. Only at which point could she offer a sacrifice to be purified. Ironic that she would enter the Temple with Jesus, whom we know will ultimately sacrifice his life on earth to give us eternal life in heaven.

Enter Simeon and Anna.

Like Elizabeth upon greeting Mary, Simeon immediately knows who Jesus is—he feels the presence of God. Simeon prophesy's the struggles that will happen not only to Jesus but also his parents. Then, Anna in her wisdom, comes before the child and give thanks to God for the coming of a savior... and begins to share with others that the time of fulfillment has come. What a beautiful, and scary surprise for these parents.

Who has been the Simeon or Anna in your life? Who saw through the ordinariness in you and revealed Christ in you? Who has quietly mentored you by pointing out God's love in your every day life?

May we be always grateful for the gift of others in our life—especially those who are not afraid to seek us when we are trying to hide.

Deacon Brad

TMIY

THAT MAN IS YOU!

Beginning Wednesday morning, February 5th the all-new tenth year of THAT MAN IS YOU continues in Oshkosh, featuring 9 dynamic speakers presenting “APOSTLES OF THE NEW SPRINGTIME!”

100 Oshkosh men experienced the first half of the tenth year of TMIY. We invite other men to join them this February as they lay a foundation for the future and leave a legacy that continues to build an authentically Christian culture.

The TMIY all-Oshkosh program is held on Wednesday Mornings at Fr. Carr’s Place 2B (NEW LOCATION!) beginning on February 5th, 2025. There will also be a Virtual Small Group Zoom discussion available each week for those who choose not to meet in person.

The sessions begin at 5:15 am with fellowship and breakfast followed by the video program at 5:45 and the small group discussion at 6:20. Each session ends at 6:50 am sharp. (The Virtual Small Group discussions are 7:00 am – 7:30 am).

From a test parish in Texas the THAT MAN IS YOU program has quickly spread to over 1,000 parishes throughout the United States, Canada, and other countries with over 100,000 men presently attending. And, the cost is free, there is no homework, and if you miss a session you just show up for the next one...the program is designed for busy men.

For more information and to register, contact the Parish Office, or come to a session (you can join at any point), or call/text Bruce Dumann at 920-379-3200, (bdumann@new.rr.com).

Men...join THAT MAN IS YOU to become a man after God’s own heart and become... THE APOSTLES OF THE NEW SPRINGTIME!
